"To achieve excellence, we must be inclusive. To be inclusive we must be equitable. We have a vision that in two years, in 2014, students with varying abilities are working together, supporting each other and valuing everyone's contribution in a more inclusive environment."

Dr. Chris Spence, Director of Education, TDSB

Please join us at one of the meetings with your response to this question:

Imagine that you and your child are in 2014. Describe in detail what has changed from 2012 to 2014 that has contributed to achieving this vision. What new and different inclusive practices are in the classroom, in the school, and in our communities?

Please see reverse for additional information
